

the voice of European traders in agri-food commodities

What is CELCAA?

CELCAA is the voice of the European agri-food trade.

Our members are sectoral EU associations jointly representing food businesses from small to medium enterprises (SMEs) to multinationals

CELCAA Vision

Our members are united in their purpose to deliver safe, diversified and high quality agri-food products, ingredients and agro-supply to consumers, retail-food and feed-industry and farmers. CELCAA stands for an ambitious European trade policy that supports European and global economic growth, employment and adequate livelihoods.

CELCAA Mission

CELCAA's mission is to create a predictable environment free of undue barriers for the agri-food trade and to engage proactively with the European Institutions and stakeholders in the interest of the sector.

CELCAA services and membership benefits

Protect your interests

CELCAA works to help shape the European trade policy and the regulatory framework pertaining to trade. CELCAA ensures that European policy makers take account of the agri-food trade's views in new legislation and policies affecting the sector. As a member of CELCAA, your organisation has a unique opportunity to meet key European decision-makers on regular basis. In parallel, your organisation will be able to contribute to CELCAA position papers and documents, thus help driving the agenda of the European Voice of the agri-food trade.

Grow your network

CELCAA creates networking opportunities through the expert meetings and policy events that are organised by the Secretariat.

Stay informed

CELCAA organises exchanges with officials from the European Institutions (Commission, Council and Parliament) on a constant basis. CELCAA is a member of all consultative groups of DG TRADE, AGRI, SANTE, GROW and TAXUD and thus relays critical information to its members. CELCAA is recognised as a key stakeholder by the Institutions. CELCAA members benefit from all seats allocated to trade in the AGRI Civil Dialogue Groups.

Participate to events & raise your visibility

CELCAA regularly organises events to promote the voice of the European agri-food trade. Your organisation will enhance its profile through speaking opportunities, alongside the CELCAA publications and website.

Media relations

CELCAA is the voice of the European Agri-food trade and is committed to raising awareness about the importance of our sector through its online presence and press relations.

Main areas of interests

EU trade policy including implementation of EU-UK Trade and Cooperation Agreement, EU Farm to Fork, EU Agri and food policies, EU customs policy
