

PROGRAMME

Trade for a Better Market

Event organised by CELCAA

Monday, 10th February 2014, 19:00-20:30

Starting with a welcome drink at 18:30

European Parliament, Room: Altiero Spinelli 3H1

Hosted by Chairman Chairman Paolo De Castro and Chairman Vital Moreira

This event will focus on the role of the trade in the agri-food chain, providing perspectives from the EU internal market as well as globally. There will be opportunity to exchange during a Q&A session.

Introductory statements
19:00	Paolo De Castro, COMAGRI Chairman Vital Moreira, INTA Chairman
19:20	Frank Hoffmeister, Deputy Head of Cabinet of Commissioner De Gucht
Panel I : Key role of the trade in contributing to food security This session seeks to inform participants on the current and future trends regarding the sourcing of agricultural products; on key figures on the trade in various agricultural products, and on possible recommendations for European operators and decision-makers on the contribution to global food security.
19:20-19:30	Vito Martielli, Analyst Grains and Oilseeds, Rabobank International Economic outlook for oilseeds and grain, animal protein and dairy products: a global perspective
19:30-19:40	Jonathan Brooks, Senior economist, Trade and Agriculture Directorate, OECD Trade in agricultural commodities and food security, a global perspective
19:40-19:50	Marcel COMBOT, Chair Market and Agricultural Policy Section, COCERAL Global Sourcing of Agricultural Commodities to meet Food, Feed and Industrial needs. Where does the EU stand.
19:50-20:00	Q & A

Panel II: Key role of the trade in the food chain

This session seeks to inform participants on the role of the trade in the agri-food chain from a perspective of the European internal market. As active and responsible participants in the market traders provide valuable services constantly seeking efficiencies by balancing supply and demand markets, reduces the chances of food loss and waste, and lessens the impact of price volatility.

20:00-20:10	Jack Baines, Executive Director at Ets. Freddy Baines, EUCOLAIT President Role of the trade in the food chain
20:10-20:15	Paul Rooke, CELCAA Chairman Presentation of CELCAA Manifesto
20:15-20:25	Q& A
20:25-20:30	Concluding remarks from Paolo De Castro, COMAGRI Chairman Vital Moreira, INTA Chairman

For more information on this event, please contact:

Pascale Rouhier, Secretary General, CELCAA

Email: p.rouhier@celcaa.eu

Tel: +04 88 36 83 47

