

Programme of workshop at WTO Public Forum
 2nd October 2015, from 9:00 to 10:30
 @ Secretariat of WTO, Room W

COPA-COGECA and CELCAA working session will focus on the role of trade as an efficient tool to promote efficiency, growth and competitiveness in the agricultural sector.

The presentations and debate will focus on how trade works for farmers, consumers and nations, in the EU and at a global level. #agritrade

10mn	Moderator: Cédric Pene, WTO Secretariat, Agriculture and commodities Division	Introduction to the panel discussion
15 mn	Mr. Willy Schulz-Greve, Head of Unit, Analysis of trade and international policies, Directorate General for Agriculture and Rural Development, European Commission	EU trade in agriculture – recent development and future orientations
15mn	Mr. Raymond, Dairy Farmer, Chair of the Copa-Cogeca Milk Working Group	How the European Milk Sector benefits from trade
15mn	Ignacio Sanchez- Recarte, Secretary General of the European Committee of Wine Enterprises	International trade in wine: present and future of a non-relocatable sector
15mn	Mr. Ogang, President of the Ugandan Farmers' Organisation and Board member of World Farmer Organisation	How Uganda agriculture may benefit from trade
1hrs	Discussion with the participants and floor	Debate with participants